Jodi Roberts is a sound healing catalyst, transformational coach, ceremonial concert musician, and recording artist using the sound of Tibetan bowls, temple bells, and Chinese gongs to weave meditative, ceremonial musical experiences. She combines the sound healing with coaching derived from years of indigenous healing and sacred studies training. She has 20 years of experience and training in mindfulness and meditation techniques for stress reduction, energy healing, transformational healing, and psychodrama techniques, accountability training and trauma recovery training. She was the first sound healing / meditation specialist for the military at Ft. Hood Army Warrior Combat Stress RESET Program in Killeen TX.

Cornell Kinderknecht is an award-nominated recording artist, performer and teacher of historic and world flutes. His unique music draws from his experience in the genres of classical, pop, world and folk music. He is a frequent presenter of music workshops throughout the U.S. and he has twice been a finalist for "Musician of the Year" at the Texas Music Awards. By combining musical artistry with his training in meditation and relaxation techniques, Cornell creates experiences that are heart-opening, welcoming, and comforting while at the same time exquisitely beautiful.
